welcome to the cincinnati art museum

Founded in 1881, our museum holds a diverse, encyclopedic permanent collection of more than 67,000 works spanning 6,000 years.

In addition to displaying our own collection, the museum also hosts several national and international traveling exhibitions each year. The museum has a wide range of virtual and in-person art-related programs, activities, and special events.

More information and digital ways to connect are available at cincinnatiartmuseum.org

As a step toward honoring the truth and achieving healing and reconciliation with those Indigenous peoples who were affected most by the Doctrine of Discovery and broken treaties, we acknowledge the traditional Shawnee and Myaamia lands on which we now stand, and on which the city of Cincinnati was built. Language provided by the Greater Cincinnati Native American Coalition.

Generously supported by:

Art Climb

Located at the corner of Gilbert Avenue and Eden Park Drive, the museum's Art Climb is a pedestrian pathway and a civic engagement space for outdoor art, programming, and community gathering. There are currently several outdoor sculptures on view. Art Climb is open seven days a week.

Photography

Personal photography without flash is allowed in the permanent collection galleries unless otherwise posted. Professional photography requires advance arrangements (of at least two weeks), please email special.events@cincyart.org to schedule.

The museum may photograph or record video of visitors for educational and marketing purposes. Attendance on museum property is implied consent for the use of visitors' likenesses in print, online, and on display materials. If you prefer not to be photographed, please notify our photographer.

general policies

- Please do not touch the artwork. Please keep a safe distance from all paintings, sculptures, and cases (approximately arm's length or three feet away).
- Food, drinks, and gum are not permitted within the galleries.
- Smoking is prohibited, including the use of e-cigarettes or other electronic smoking devices.
- Works of art are occasionally rotated off view and galleries are closed periodically for a variety of reasons. Please inquire at the Visitor Services Desk for information on specific works of art or gallery closures.
- All large bags will be inspected upon arrival. Coat room and lockers are available in the Main Lobby and DeWitt entrance. All backpacks, packages, briefcases, shopping bags, umbrellas, and other large items (larger than 11 x 15 x 4 in.), must be left in the coat room in the lockers provided. The museum is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. For the safety of children and the art, large-framed child carriers are not permitted in the galleries. Small baby slings and less bulky child carriers are allowed, and we ask parents to be mindful of their surroundings.
- A limited number of strollers and wheelchairs are available free of charge in the coat room off the Main Lobby and DeWitt entrance.
- Pencils are permitted in the galleries; pens and markers are prohibited.
- Visitors who wish to copy a work of art using materials other than pencil must complete a copyist permit at the Visitor Service Desk.
- If you get lost or have any questions, there are gallery attendants stationed throughout the museum to help.
- Please visit cincinnatiartmuseum.org for additional policies.

accessibility

We strive for inclusivity by increasing accessibility to our collection, programming, and resources. We seek to eliminate barriers by accommodating the individual needs of all visitors.

For accessibility tools or if this map does not suit your needs, please stop by our Visitor Services Desk. We can provide sensory headphones, fidgets, and a large print Accessibility Guide that includes quiet spaces, seating areas, low light spaces, and hands-on areas.

 We hope to continuously improve our efforts. Visit cincinnatiartmuseum.org/access to learn more or for additional resources including social narratives and audio description videos. To help make our collection accessible to everyone, regularly scheduled programs are designed for people of varying abilities. If you have questions or need additional accommodations, please contact us at access@cincyart.org.
