Celebrate Cincinnati Art Museum and the one-year anniversary of the Art Climb with events May 4–9

CINCINNATI— The Cincinnati Art Museum opened its Art Climb to the public on May 7, 2020. This civic and arts space became a place for visitors to reflect and enjoy art and activity amid the national pandemic. The outdoor landscape welcomed and connected the community while the museum's in-gallery operations were temporarily halted to support public health.

While a lot has changed in the last year, there is much to celebrate and look forward to! Check out five exciting Cincinnati Art Museum events scheduled the first week in May.

About the Cincinnati Art Museum's Art Climb

Located at the corner of Gilbert Avenue and Eden Park Drive, the Art Climb spans a hill nearly as tall as Cincinnati's Carew Tower. It is the museum's way to activate its grounds through casual and recreational art interactions outside the walls of the museum. Learn more at cincinnatiartmuseum.org/artclimb

About the Cincinnati Art Museum

The Cincinnati Art Museum is supported by the generosity of individuals and businesses that give annually to ArtsWave. The Ohio Arts Council helps fund the Cincinnati Art Museum with state tax dollars to encourage economic growth, educational excellence and cultural enrichment for all Ohioans. The Cincinnati Art Museum gratefully acknowledges operating support from the City of Cincinnati, as well as our members.

Free general admission to the Cincinnati Art Museum is made possible by a gift from the Rosenthal Family Foundation. Special exhibition pricing may vary. Parking at the Cincinnati Art Museum is free. Visit cincinnatiartmuseum.org for more information.

About The Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra

The Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra is an ensemble of 32 professional musicians that launched the critically acclaimed summer music festival Summermusik in 2015. The CCO's size allows for creativity in programming, the ideal ensemble for presenting orchestral works ranging from the Baroque and Classical eras to commissioned works by contemporary composers. Collaborations with other arts organizations are a hallmark of the CCO. Summermusik concerts are presented in various beautiful venues all around Greater Cincinnati under the exciting leadership of Music Director Eckart Preu during the month of August.
